Private English Classes for

ANYONE and EVERYONE!

ABOUT THE CLASS: If you would like to improve English speaking skills, writing skills and/or reading comprehension skills, this class can be open to anyone, kindergarteners to adults. Students can choose to build social English skills, academic English skills, business English skills or even skills for SAT preparation. If you are interested, the first step is to meet with the instructor to discuss your goals. Then, based on your needs, the instructor will assess your current level of English proficiency and develop an individualized plan for you. (This consultation is free of charge.) Once an action plan has been established, the instructor will recommend an appropriate *workbook for you to purchase. This book will then be the guide for your personalized course of study.

ABOUT THE TEACHER: Miss Elena Cala is an English instructor with 25 years of teaching experience, fully certified in both New York and California. She holds 2 master's degrees in Education and 7 teaching credentials, including a certificate to teach English as a New Language (ENL) from the University of Notre Dame and a certificate to Teach English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) from the University of California, San Diego (UCSD).

WHEN: Class times can be arranged based on your schedule. The instructor is available Monday through Friday between the hours of 6:00 PM and 9:00 PM. Saturday and Sunday classes may also be arranged.

COST: Children: *$55/hour Adults: *$75/hour (*plus the cost of a workbook)

HOW TO SIGN-UP: Please email the instructor at calatutor@yahoo.com to introduce yourself and to make an appointment for a no-cost consultation.
