

After School Learning Tree – Paul’s Art Studio

Welcome to the Art World

徐保罗 - Paul Xu

- 1982-1986 Studied in the Department of Chinese Painting, Guangzhou Academy of Fine Arts
- 1986-1997 taught at the Fine Arts Department of Huazhong Normal University
- 2005-2018 taught at the U.S. Arts Education Center in San Diego

Teaching Introduction:

The level of students in this class can range from beginner to advance. Through learning the basic foundations of art (space, line, form, texture, color, value), students from all stages will acquire the ability to shape, sketch, color, and imagine creatively. This class will enable students to appreciate their own works, in addition to enhancing their concentration, and self-confidence.

Classroom Rules:

1. During class, students are expected to remain quiet, focus on their drawings, and to remain in their seats at all times. Students should not discuss topics that are not related to this class, so as to not disturb other students.
2. If you have any questions, please remain in your seat and raise your hand. If the teacher is helping other students, please wait patiently.
3. Students should not doodle on the drawing board, the table, the easels, the wall, the chairs or on the ground.
4. Students should remain courteous at all times and should avoid using uncivilized, impolite or inappropriate words in the classroom.
5. Students should actively cooperate and follow the teacher’s guidance at all times to ensure success.
6. During class breaks, students should not run and play in the classroom.
